1) PROJECT INFORMATION

Field of expertise related to the topic:

In relation to the topic, Fomento de San Sebastian has experience in organising science events in the city of San Sebastian. The last experience was "Donostia Week INN", the innovation week that took place in the city of San Sebastian last year 2014. This event fostered collaboration between entrepreneurs, researchers, students, citizens, companies, universities, technology centres and financial entities. The Innovation Week spanned 10 days filled with activities that reflected the city's rich innovation ecosystem: the Donostia EnpresEkin Congress about successful ideas for companies, Working4Talent, a European congress about strategies to attract talent, City of Culture as an innovation project, motivation sessions to activate the capacities of people with innovative perspectives, sessions with schools, participatory open innovation workshops, social entrepreneurship events, activities related with strategic sectors (workshops about sustainability, urban mobility, the agro-food sector and sustainable development, innovation in surfing and videogames, and business opportunities in videogames), etc.

Moreover, Fomento de San Sebastián has developed a collaborative and creative platform that seeks to foster open innovation in Donostia. The aim is to give a voice to citizens so they can contribute ideas to improve the city.

As well as the website, a working group has been set up that brings together several key agents for the city (technology centres, universities, professional training centres, agents for the city of culture 2016, entrepreneurs, young people, etc.), developing ideas and possible solutions to resolve the challenges set.

You can find more information about these initiatives in the following link:

<http://www.fomentosansebastian.eus/donostiainn/en/news/925-over-1000-people-from-san-sebastian-took-part-in-donostia-week-inn>

Potential contribution to the project: There are over 4000 people in Donostia working in the field of R&D and Innovation, and the city is home to a large network of technology centres, universities, companies and bodies linked to innovation.

Fomento de San Sebastian could organise the events, scientific cafés, etc. in the city of San Sebastian in order to engage citizens in Science. The entity will take advantage of previous experiences mentioned above.
